

Chino museum information

▼WEB

Chino City Togariishi Museum of Jomon Archaeology

Come in contact with Jomon culture at the origin of Jomon research

The museum is situated in a corner of the Togariishi Stone Age Site that is designated to the Special Historic Site of Japan, and displays 2000 works ranging from the three-dimensionally decorated pottery representing the Jomon culture from the base of Yatsugatake Mountain, including 2 National Treasure "Dogu"s (the Venus of Jomon, the Masked Goddess), to beautiful jade adornments.

〒391-0213 4734-132, Toyohira, Chino city, Nagano prefecture
Tel.0266-76-2270

■Get off at Chino station on the JR Chuo-honsen line, or "Togariishi Jomon Koukokan Mae" bus stop on the "Shibu No Yu" line ■25 minutes by car from Suwa Interchange on the Chuo Expressway

🕒 9:00~17:00 (Entry is until 16:30) Closed Mondays (we may be temporarily open), New Years holiday and the day following a National holiday ♫ Adults 500yen (400yen), High School Age 300yen (200yen), Elementary and Middle School Age 200yen (150yen) *The prices inside the parenthesis are the discounted prices for groups of above 20 people *Elementary or middle school children residing in the 6 Suwa municipalities, high school age children living in Chino city or attend high school in Chino city, those who have a disability booklet and 1 accompanying member, and those who have the Suwa city museum passport may enter for free

Chino City Yatsugatake Museum

Understand all about nature and culture in Chino city

The displays are a combination of how the land of Chino city came to be, nature such as animal and plants, folklore and history since the Jomon period such as documents from historical and archaeological sites, trade such as saws and agar, and literature. There are also a number of exhibitions and lectures on the various subjects.

〒391-0213 6983, Toyohira, Chino city, Nagano prefecture
Tel.0266-73-0300

■A few minutes walk from Chino station on the JR Chuo-honsen line, and from Fukuzawa Iriguchi bus stop or Rikadai Iriguchi bus stop ■15 minutes by car from Suwa Interchange on the Chuo Expressway

🕒 9:00~16:30 Closed Mondays, New Years holiday and the day following a National holiday ♫ Adults 310yen, High School Age 210yen, Elementary and Middle School Age 150yen (For groups of over 20 people: Adults 210yen, High School Age 150yen, Elementary and Middle School Age 100yen) *Elementary and middle school students living in or attending school in the 6 Suwa municipalities, and high school students living in or attending school in Chino city, may enter for free.

Chino City Jinchokan Moriya Historical Museum

Learn the origin of the Suwa faith

It was made for the purpose of storing roughly 1600 ancient texts handed down through the Moriya family, which served as the Jinchokan of the Suwa Kamisha until the Edo period. The Moriya documents store many records of holy rituals that took place in Suwa Kamisha, and ancient texts relating to the warriors of the time, including Shingen Takeda's letters, and more.

〒391-0013 389-1, Miyagawa, Chino city, Nagano prefecture
Tel.0266-73-7567

■Get off at Chino station on the JR Chuo-honsen line, take the bus for 10 minutes to the Takabe bus stop, and walk 3 minutes ■Get off at Chino station, 2.5km from the station, 40 minutes walking

🕒 9:00~16:30 Closed Mondays, New Years holiday and the day following a National holiday ♫ Adults 100yen, High School Age 70yen, Elementary and Middle School Age 50yen (For groups of over 20 people: Adults 70yen, High School Age 50yen, Elementary and Middle School Age 30yen) *Elementary and middle school students living in or attending school in the 6 Suwa municipalities, and high school students living in or attending school in Chino city, may enter for free.

Chino City Museum of Art

An art museum which sees, communicates, and connects with the local region

It stores over 1000 works by local artists. The cultural facility Chino Cultural Complex containing the museum of art functions as a hall, art museum, and community, and uses its characteristics to collaborate with art and other genres.

〒391-0002 Inside Chino Cultural Complex, 1-1-1, Tsukahara, Chino city, Nagano prefecture
Tel.0266-82-8222

■Get off at Chino station on the JR Chuo-honsen line, directly connected from the East exit ■12 minutes by car from Suwa Interchange on the Chuo Expressway

🕒 9:00~19:00 (museum collection) *It will be decided accordingly for exhibitions Closed Tuesdays (if it is a holiday then the next work day), New Years holiday and exhibition replacement days ♫ Free (museum collection) *It will be decided accordingly for exhibitions

Kyoto University of Art & Design Koyodo Museum of Art

An art museum lying in almost 20,000 square meters of forest, at the foot of Yatsugatake Mountains

The collection is of roughly 370 works, ranging from modern Japanese style paintings, oil paintings, water color paintings, and glass works. Other than the special exhibitions and collection exhibitions held 4 times a year, this museum strives to be a place where local people can come freely and relax by holding many events including concerts and workshops.

〒391-0213 4734-215, Toyohira, Chino city, Nagano prefecture. Tel.0266-71-6811

■Get off at Chino station on the JR Chuo-honsen line, or "Togariishi Jomon Koukokan Mae" bus stop on the "Shibu No Yu" line ■30 minutes by car from Suwa Interchange on the Chuo Expressway

🕒 10:00~17:00 (Entry is until 16:30) Closed Mondays (if it is a holiday then the next work Tuesday), the 4th Tuesday of the month, exhibition replacement days, and the entire winter season ♫ General (including highschool and middle school age) 300yen, under middle school age, students of Kyoto University of Art & Design: free

Tateshina Kogen Museum of Art - Torao Yazaki Memorial Museum

See... touch... feel the sculptures...

A museum of art which opened in the artist's favorite Tateshina highlands, to store and display the works of Torao Yazaki, a sculptor from Chino city. Enjoy the world of Torao Yazaki's sculptures next to the North Yatsugatake ropeway, a fusion of the eastern and western esprit.

〒391-0301 4035, Kitayama, Chino city, Nagano prefecture
Tel.0266-67-6171 or 0266-67-2009 (North Yatsugatake Resort)

■Get off at Chino station on the JR Chuo-honsen line, and on the bus going to "North Yatsugatake Ropeway", get off at the last stop ■50 minutes by car from Suwa Interchange on the Chuetsu road

🕒 10:00~15:00 Closed Irregular holidays, winter (from the end of November~end of April) ♫ Adults 500yen (400yen), Children 300yen (250yen) *The prices inside the parenthesis are the prices for a group of more than 30 people

